Call to Order:
Julianna Swanson called the meeting to order at 9:01 p.m.

Secretary's Report:
- Matthew Roddy, Kati Melton, Brittany Anspach, Jordan Lehr, Adam Strubbart, Tiffany Pryor, and Kyler Scheer were absent.
- A quorum was announced.

Adoption of Minutes:
- Lauren Haukapp moved to approve the minutes and CJ Clarizio seconded the motion.
- The motion carried unanimously.

Open Session:
- New TV Cable Issues: Campus Concerns Committee will look further into this issue.
- PAC Availability: PAC rooms are being utilized by organizations on campus without using the request process for room availability. The Campus Concerns Committee will look further into this issue.

Committee Reports:
- Conservation Committee: The committee plans to come up with a budget for single-stream recycling during the next meeting.
- Campus Concerns Committee: Parking issues are becoming a more prevalent problem. The committee is looking to resolve some of these issues by working with Public Safety. Please email Public Safety if you have problems with parking. There is also a new appeal process online if you receive a ticket you believe is unjust. The major changes in the parking policy can be found in the student handbook. The most important change to take notice of is that parking lots are not open after 7pm or on weekends. Please follow the permit signs posted at the entrance of each lot.

Financial Report:
- The current budget is $1,5063.28.
Public Relations Report:
- The PR Committee is continuing to work on Everyone Matters Day.
