Current Business:
- SGA Binders: All SGA members will be receiving binders with important information regarding SGA constitution, bylaws, yearly goals, Robert’s Rules, financial information, etc. These should be completed and given to members by next week.
- Robert’s Rules: Lucas Barker, SGA Parliamentarian, spoke briefly on Robert’s Rules, mentioning that SGA is off to a good start this year when it comes to implementing them. He will be sending out “Robert’s Rules Quick Reference” to all SGA members via email within the next week.

Old Business:
- Office Hours: SGA will be hosting office hours this semester. This will be a time segment dedicated for concerned students, faculty, staff, and RSOs wishing to speak to SGA. These office hours will begin next week (MWF) from 11:00 a.m. to noon in PAC 212. Volunteers to help are as follows: Lauren Haukapp, Matthew Roddy, Morgan Roscow, Lucas Barker, TJ Kelly, and Tyler Wallin.
- Involvement Fair: Taryn Butler, SGA’s Public Relation Chair, gave much gratitude to all those who helped at the SGA table at the involvement fair. There were several students who signed up with interest in SGA and many students put fourth some really helpful responses about concerns on campus on the “feed back” cards that were given out at the involvement fair.

New Business:
- Elections: Senator petitions, available online, are DUE September 15, 2013 at 5:00 p.m. On September 16th - 20th, campaigning will take place and voting will be September 23rd - 27th until 5:00 p.m. Lastly, on September 30th, the newly elected senators will serve in their positions.
- Bearcat Award Games: Taryn Butler brought it to the assembly’s attention that CAB has extended the time to enter into the Bearcat Award Games. With this being said, she wanted to know if SGA would have interest in creating a team to participate.
  - A motion was moved by CJ Clarizio to develop a team to participate in the Bearcat Award Games and was seconded by Lauren Haukapp. The motion carried unanimously.
- Homecoming Candidates: The idea was brought fourth to the assembly to have one male and one female run for homecoming court to represent SGA.
  - A motion was moved by Matthew Roddy to have SGA Homecoming Court Candidates for the Fall of 2013. Lauren Haukapp seconded the motion.
  - A ballot vote was taken and it was determined that Ashlyn Beasley and Matthew Roddy will represent SGA in running for Homecoming King and Queen.
