

Marketing (MKT)

- Major: 61 credit hours
- Minor: 18 credit hours
- Major/Minor GPA required for graduation: 2.25

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS:

- Capstone: Business Strategy and Policy (BUS 450)
- Research: Marketing Research (MKT 410)

Description of Major: The American Marketing Association defines marketing as “the process of planning and executing the conception, pricing, promotion and distribution of goods, services, and ideas to create exchanges that satisfy individual and organizational objectives.” The marketing curriculum is based on a customer satisfaction model that is consistent with this definition.

Student Learning Outcomes

Students will:

- Apply critical thought regarding the business environment.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the major concepts in the functional areas of business.
- Develop marketing research ability to generate suitable marketing strategies and tactics.
- Recognize the effect of human psychology on business and consumer behavior.

Preparation: The marketing program is designed to prepare students for a professional career in marketing such as advertising, brand management, sales management, and marketing research. Upon graduation, students will have the skills needed to pursue a higher degree or seek employment in one of many opportunities open in the field.

Marketing (MKT)

MKT 205 PRINCIPLES OF MARKETING The course focuses on an analysis of the four strategic elements of marketing – product, price, promotion, and distribution – and the environmental factors that affect the market. The basic theories and examples of marketing practices that this course comprises will prepare the student for further study in marketing and other business fields. Each semester.	3	MKT 354 ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION A course focusing on the communications functions of marketing. Topics include public relations, merchandising, sales promotion, advertising management, and marketing communications theory and research. Prerequisite: MKT 205. Spring, annually.	3
MKT 305 CONSUMER BEHAVIOR This course examines the purchase decision situation and the processes that influence it. Basic concepts from the field of cognitive psychology form the theoretical foundation of the course. Applications of the theories to the practice of marketing are developed. Prerequisite: MKT 205. Fall, annually.	3	MKT 380-389 TOPICS IN MARKETING As needed.	1-3
MKT 320 PERSONAL SELLING This course examines the personal selling communication process: how information is used to persuade and to satisfy individual needs. Emphasis is placed on preparation for a sale, presentation, closing, handling objections, and follow-up after the sale. Opportunity is provided to study different types of sales environments. Prerequisite: MKT 205. As needed.	3	MKT 410 MARKETING RESEARCH (W) The course introduces the scientific method as it is applied in marketing. Quantitative and qualitative research methods are studied and an original research project is undertaken. Students gain experience in developing research questions, selecting appropriate methods, using analytical tools, and interpreting and presenting research findings. Prerequisites: MKT 205, 305, 354, MTH 170. Fall, annually.	3
MKT 325 SPORT MARKETING (W) This course explores the world of sport and entertainment marketing, including distribution, pricing, promotion, selling, and product/service management through the creation of a comprehensive marketing plan.
