BEGINNING A JOB SEARCH IN EDUCATION

1) Prepare and tailor all materials needed to apply for each position: Prepare your cover letter, résumé, references, 30-second commercial, interview skills, interview attire, questions to ask the employer, and thank you letters. Many schools require an application with a writing section in addition to your résumé and other credentials.

2) Begin your search before the last semester of your program. Districts hire at different times. Many start to interview as early as January for the fall, or during the fall and winter months for January start dates. Maternity leave, medical leave, retirement, non-renewed contracts, and other circumstances impact vacancies.

3) Find out about posted openings through individual school, district, or state websites, as well as McKendree’s College Central Network (CCN).

4) Get organized and make To Do lists. Make a file for each district to which you apply. Record what you sent and when, who you corresponded with, and any follow-up contacts. It will be difficult to keep track if you are not organized. You want to be prepared when districts contact you. Check the status of your online applications.

5) Utilize Career Services for education career fairs, workshops, job postings, résumé/cover letter critiques, and mock interviews. Join our social media pages for tips.

6) Network! According to research, up to 80% of jobs are found via networking. Knowing people can give you an edge, not to mention potentially wonderful professional resources. During field experiences, student teaching, and/or internships, it is crucial to introduce yourself to the administration and take advantage of the resources many teachers/administrators can provide. Not only can this expand your knowledge, it can connect you with people in the field. Use this opportunity to also find references.

7) Expand your search. Focusing on one county or district significantly decreases your chances of landing a position. Include private schools, St. Louis districts, and other states that award reciprocity or few additional licensure requirements, as well as more northern and southern parts of Illinois in your search. Many areas that have a large market for good teachers, so be willing to look out of the state as well.

8) Create experiences for yourself. Do not depend on unique experience given to you in your field experiences, student teaching, or jobs. Volunteer, create projects, implement new ideas, and take the extra step to go beyond what is expected of you. Consider what schools are looking for and try to create that experience in your work. Besides, it is all for the betterment in the education of youth!

9) Consider applying to other jobs in education. Apply to aide and full-time/part-time substitute teaching vacancies in districts where you want to work. By doing this, you can gain experience in the school and classroom, as well as network. Other organizations, such as tutoring centers, can also give you relevant experience.
NETWORKING

Networking is connecting with people in your field to gain information about your career field and to assist you in your career development. Here is a quick “Networking 101” course:

1) Get involved! Keep gaining work experience through a part-time job, volunteer in the community, and get to know people in the districts where you are doing your field experiences. Join professional organizations related to your major if student membership is allowed. Consider joining professional networking websites like LinkedIn, and remember to keep social networking pages appropriate. All of this involvement will give you the opportunity to connect with many professionals in your field.

2) Develop a pool of contacts! Start small. Choose a couple of people and work to expand your contacts. A good way to start might be an informational interview. Remember, quality is better than quantity. See Career Services for more information.

3) Have a business card and a commercial! Be prepared to talk about yourself. Apply yourself to the industry, but do not make it only about you.

4) Research and record! Take mental notes or use whatever strategy works for you. Write these notes on the business cards you have collected or a piece of paper immediately after the meeting/event. Think about the next step and conversation.

5) Have a positive attitude and a smile! Body language, tone of voice, and eye contact impact your conversation and the impression you make.

6) Stay in touch! Be sure to connect with new contacts in the future. Do not pester them; simply send a message or a note following the event, then perhaps contact them over holidays or about an upcoming event. Write about specific things you have discussed or have in common. Always approach them at events where you both are in attendance.

7) Know your limit! Do not target one person, but also do not try to reach everyone. Make a targeted effort and focus on a few to engage in meaningful conversations.

8) Always be professional! In dress and behavior, it is important to be professional. Make a good first impression. For information on professional dress, visit Career Services.

9) Have a résumé ready! You never know who will ask, and you want to be prepared.

10) Write thank you letters! After an informational interview or being provided with helpful information, write a thank you letter. Manners and kindness go a long way.
DESIGNING A RÉSUMÉ

Your résumé should outline your educational and employment experiences, your interests and activities, and your goals. Briefly and concisely, your résumé should tell the employer:

- Who you are
- What you know
- What you have done
- What you would like to do
- What you can do for the employer

Always send a cover letter with your résumé. You can see cover letter writing tips and examples later in this guide.

There is no single prescribed format for résumés. Here are some basic rules, however, to follow in designing an attractive and informative résumé:

- Select a format that best suits your qualifications
- Do not add graphics or pictures
- Highlight skills and abilities
- Include marketable, relevant data
- Tailor résumé to specific qualifications
- Put your information in order of interest to your reader
- Minimize personal information
- Be consistent with format
- Know your audience
- Make your resume graphically pleasing
- Feel free to go onto two pages because of your field experience
- Make your résumé easy to scan (don’t assume the employer will take time to read every last word)
- Generally, margins are one inch from top, bottom, and sides
- Make sure to proofread, proofread, proofread
- Review final draft with counselor, friend, faculty member, etc.
- Reproduce professionally
- Use quality résumé paper, white or off-white, and do not staple; you may paperclip your résumé, though
TRANSFERABLE SKILLS CHECKLIST

Over the years, you have developed many skills from part-time/full-time positions, classes, campus activities, volunteerism, and other leadership experiences. A prospective employer wants to know about these transferable skills you have gained and how they can be applied in their specific work environment. Use the following checklist to help you pinpoint some of your transferable skills.

City/State/Zip
Phone Number
E-mail Address

OBJECTIVE
Concise description of position desired. Tailor your objective to each employer you target and every position you seek, including what you have to offer the school.

EDUCATION
Include the following:
Degree Graduation month & year
Major: McKendree University, Lebanon, IL
Minor: (if applicable) GPA: (if 3.0 or above)
Endorsement(s): (if applicable) License Type & Area of Concentration

* If you do not have your license, write what tests you have passed to date (Basic Skills, Content, etc.) and anticipated date of licensure. You can also add above-average scores here.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE
Substitute teaching, student teaching, field experience, and Aide positions. For bulleted statements, focus on what makes you different. Unique experiences showing initiative, creativity, and results are more effective than “graded tests.”

RELATED EXPERIENCE
Coach, Tutor, Camp Counselor, Teacher’s Assistant, Sunday School Teacher, and similar titles. Include any experience with children, education, and the community.

HONORS
Do not include high school information in this section after earning sophomore status.

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES & LEADERSHIP
Do not include high school information in this section after earning sophomore status.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES
Include any clubs, sports, or groups in which you have participated for a period of time where you would be confident in leading such groups, teams, or organizations at the school to which you are applying. This will help market your ability to be involved outside of the classroom.

TECHNOLOGY SKILLS
Include educational software and any technology used with lesson plans.

WHAT MAKES ME DIFFERENT?

What experience did you gain during student teaching and field practicums that separate you from the rest? All teacher candidates plan lessons, teach, and grade. What unique skills or experience prepared you to be the best candidate though? This is the key to a résumé that has greater potential of earning you an interview. Here are some things to think about:

DID YOU:
• Plan a field trip?
• Modify a lesson for ESL or IEP students?
• Contribute to an REI team or project?
• Assist with RtI?
• Volunteer to assist with an extra-curricular activity or club?
• Administer state and/or standardized tests?
• Organize a group tutoring program?
• Team teach? Team plan?
• Develop cross-curricular projects, lessons, or units?
• Integrate character education into lessons and projects?
• Regularly contact parents to update them on their student’s performance, good or bad?
• Administer a new part of the curriculum?
• Serve on a faculty committee?
• Creatively utilize technology in your classroom?
• Improve student performance and grades?
• Facilitate learning through cooperative learning groups?

Think about the characteristics of an ideal teacher candidate, such as these above. Sell yourself in your résumé and cover letter by focusing on what experience and skills you possess that not every other teacher candidate has. These skills will be your edge in the hiring process. Market yourself appropriately. Use strong verbs and adverbs to describe your skills.
ACTION VERBS

Use this list of action verbs to write your brief accomplishment descriptions on your résumé.

RÉSUMÉ CHECKLIST

☐ Is my résumé a good length? The preferred length is one page for recent graduates, but as an education major, you may use two pages because of the related field experience. Just be sure to fill 1½ pages if you go onto that second page.

☐ Is your résumé organized? Your résumé should be consistent in the parts that are bold, capitalized, bulleted, etc., and the format should be easy to follow.

☐ Do I use bullets to describe my experiences? You do not want long paragraphs or sentences because it takes too long to say too little. Likewise, you do not want your résumé to be too sparse with only dates and job titles/ experiences. Instead, use bulleted statements for your relevant experiences, starting with strong action verbs.

☐ Do I include results in my bulleted statements? Readers want to know what you accomplished in your field experiences, jobs, or leadership positions.

☐ Is there any irrelevant information on my résumé? Height, weight, gender, health, and marital status are unnecessary and are illegal to ask. Also, be sure to leave off information from over 10 years ago, unless related to the position you are seeking.

☐ Did I have a few people proofread my résumé? Be aware that misspellings, typographical errors, and poor grammar could cost you the job. Remember that spellcheck will not catch everything either. Carefully proofread résumés before they are printed and mailed.

☐ Am I using anything too fancy that is distracting? Fancy typesetting, binders, photographs, and exotic paper stocks distract from the clarity of the presentation.

☐ Is my résumé professional looking? Your résumé should be neatly typed and printed in black on one side of quality résumé paper. You may use paperclips to send your résumé, but not staples.

☐ Did I attach a cover letter? Too many résumés arrive on employer desks unrequested, with little or no apparent connections to the organization. A cover letter helps direct the résumé to the proper recipient. Make sure to submit a personalized cover letter even if you are applying to a specific position!

REMEMBER: The reason employers become interested in you is the value that you can produce for them. This value is demonstrated by what you have done along with what you can do. Eliminate things that do not focus on your potential value. Your résumé is a demonstration of your ability to handle written communication. Put as much care and attention into your résumé as you would for a one-page advertisement of a fine product.
Candidates should receive permission from an individual before using that person for a reference. Normally, you list three to five references. You may left justify or center the information on the page. Do not use family or friends as references unless an employer requests personal references. Examples of good references would be current or previous supervisors or principals, faculty members, coaches, sponsors of your activities, and colleagues.

COVER LETTER GUIDELINES

1. Use white or off-white high-quality paper and make sure that you use the same paper for your résumé and reference page. We also recommend higher-quality envelopes.

2. The purpose of your cover letter is to obtain an interview, and writing that first letter is hard work. Put yourself in the position of the employer:
   a. What would get YOUR attention?
   b. What would YOU be looking for?
   c. What would cause YOU to select a certain letter for further consideration?

3. Remain as brief and focused as possible.

4. Address your letter to someone who has the authority to hire (by name and title). If you do not already have the person’s name, call the school and obtain it. When impossible to get that information, simply address your letter to the school’s name.

5. Indicate the position for which you are applying, along with where you read about the opening or who referred you.

6. Give the employer a reason to pick you over other applicants for an interview. Personalize your letter!

7. Demonstrate that you have conducted research on the school or district. Explain why you want to work for them.

8. Convey your enthusiasm and commitment for this line of work.

9. Outline specifically what you are asking and what you have to offer them.

11. Point directly to the next step, telling just what YOU intend to do next. Whenever possible, do not put the burden of responsibility on the company to call you.

12. As with the résumé, thoroughly check your final product for spelling, grammatical, and typographical errors. Use the “spell check” option on your computer, but be sure to proofread. Ask another person to review the letter, too.
DESIGNING A COVER LETTER

Always write a cover letter when applying for a position, unless the instructions indicate to do otherwise. The format that follows is an example of a cover letter/letter of application. You should compose a letter with which you feel comfortable and that best presents you as a candidate for the specific position.

Dear (Mr., Ms., Dr.) last name: [2 returns]

Paragraph 1: Attract attention! State your purpose for writing and indicate the position or type of work for which you are applying. Indicate how you heard of the opening and mention, by name, any referring party. State your reasons for wanting to work for this particular school or district after doing research. Personalize this area to every employer. [2 returns]

Middle Paragraph(s): Sell yourself! Summarize what you have to offer by stating the qualifications you believe would interest this specific employer. Tell the employer how you can be of benefit to them! Emphasize your career interest(s) and briefly point out particular achievements that qualify you for this position. [2 returns]

Final Paragraph: Close by informing the reader of your next action (usually arranging for an interview). You might say that you would be happy to meet with the employer at a convenient time for them. It is also appropriate, if a telephone number is given, to mention that you will be telephoning to follow up with them. [2 returns]

SAMPLE COVER LETTER - VACANCY

123 Main Street
Springfield, IL 12345
May 10, 2016

Dr. Tim Bright
Superintendent
Independent School District #1
123 Main Street
Lebanon, IL 62254

Dear Dr. Bright:

Please consider me as a candidate for the middle school Language Arts position with District #1. I learned of this vacancy from Ms. Mary Smith, second-grade teacher in your district. The district’s focus on character education is impressive. Your motto, “We work hard before we play hard,” is an important lesson for students to learn. I am confident that my education and experience would be an asset to your students to build character through education.

Upon visiting your website and speaking with teachers in the district, I had the opportunity to learn even more about the middle school and was impressed with its many accomplishments. Success under NCLB and strong parent involvement are notable characteristics of your school. I am completing a full semester as a student teacher at Adams Middle School. While there, I have worked with my mentor to implement new programs and creative lessons that integrate a variety of educational objectives, including character education, civic responsibility, and cross-curricular content. I also worked as a team with other teachers to address student concerns and create new ways to utilize technology to deliver content. In addition to my classroom experience, I have volunteered to assist with the school’s newspaper and writer’s club. Because of my interest in student publications, I am particularly interested in this position with Independent School District, which includes responsibilities for advising the student newspaper.

The attached résumé further details my qualifications and experiences. I look forward to arranging an interview at your convenience so we can discuss how I can contribute to the continued success of Independent School District. Please contact me at 618.123.4567 or kbrooks@email.com. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Kaitlyn N. Brooks

SAMPLE COVER LETTER - NO CURRENT VACANCY

20 Chicago Road
Chicago, IL 12345
June 1, 2016

Dr. Robert Smith
Superintendent
Quality School District #12
123 School Street
Chicago, IL 98765

Dear Dr. Smith:

Please consider me as a candidate for any secondary English positions with Taylor High School. Your district is well known in this area, and I would be pleased to serve as a staff member for your program. Upon visiting your website, I was able to learn more about Quality School District and impressed by your high school’s strong accomplishments, including the fact that many students continue education at institutions of higher learning.

Recently I earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English with a minor in Communication, and I possess experience both in the classroom and in leading extracurricular activities. As the enclosed résumé indicates, I completed a full semester as a student teacher where I worked with my mentor to plan a variety of creative writing lessons, which resulted in an overall increase in the class average grade by 10%. Each student created a portfolio that highlighted poetry and short stories assigned throughout the year. Learning occurs outside of the classroom as well and is an important experience for all students and educators. I have volunteered to assist with the faculty bulletin, track team, and National Honor Society. Quality School District offers numerous opportunities for participation in extracurricular activities, and my experience with such programs would be a benefit to your high school.

I will forward my application materials to you so for review in regards to future vacancies. I will contact you in two weeks to see if you have received my résumé and to answer any questions you may have. Otherwise, please contact me at 618.555.5555 or jmonroe@email.com. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Jackson Z. Monroe

MISSOURI REAP INTRODUCTION

The Regional Education Applicant Placement (REAP) program is a free online placement service specifically designed by college career officers and educational human resources directors to create a more efficient networking system for new education graduates and experienced professionals.

REAP is the easiest, quickest, and most efficient way for job seekers in the field of education to get their name in front of Human Resources personnel from Cooperating School District members representing several hundred schools in St. Louis, Missouri and surrounding areas.

REAP saves you time and expands your opportunities. Simply complete the Online Application at any time. Then, rather than spending hours and hours driving around town to individual districts and schools, just click the mouse! Instantly, your résumé, career preferences, and other pertinent information will be at the fingertips of Human Resources directors throughout the region.

It takes time to save time! Completing the application takes some time – up to two hours or more – but you do not have to finish the application all at one time. You can stop at any point during the process and return to your work later. It saves you time in the future since you do not have to repeat the process for each new job opening. Just one application reaches all the full-member districts. So take your time, and be sure to be thoughtful, complete, and accurate in your answers.

The interview is the most important part of the job search. It is usually the last and most decisive part of your campaign for a good job. Initial contacts by letter and résumé, by telephone, or in person are necessary components of the job search, but the interview is usually the determining factor.

The interview is your chance to learn more about the district/organization, and it is their opportunity to assess your potential as an employee. Overall, here are the qualities that interviewers are looking for:

- Personality: genuineness, self-confidence, honesty
- Communication Skills: clear answers, good listening skills, poise
- Reactions: alertness, spontaneity, intelligent and relevant responses
- Energy Level: enthusiasm, appropriate eagerness
- Maturity: expression of career goals, self-awareness, appropriate seriousness/use of humor
- Motivation: willingness to learn, interest in the position
- Compatibility: ability to get along with others, sensitivity to others
- Preparation: knowledge of school district and position, thoughtful responses

INTERVIEW TIPS

- Dress conservatively
- Organize your materials in a pad folio
- Bring copies of your résumé, business cards, and supporting materials
- Arrive early (but only five to seven minutes early to the interviewer’s office)
- Display proper behavior the minute you arrive in the parking lot
- Take time to use restroom and check your hair, makeup, etc.
- Have a good, strong handshake
- Maintain eye contact
- Be friendly, relaxed, and respectful
- Use interviewer’s last name
- Accentuate your skills
- Do not monopolize the conversation
- Smile when appropriate
- Maintain good posture
- Ask questions to show interest
- Control nervous mannerisms
- Ask for interviewer’s business card
- Make notes after interview
- Immediately send a thank you letter
PREPARING FOR AN INTERVIEW

Now that you know the basics for a successful interview process, follow these specific steps:

1. Send your résumé, cover letter, and any other requested materials to the school - Career Services can help you to prepare these materials.

2. Consider creating a Portfolio - To make you stand out, consider creating an electronic portfolio (e.g. PowerPoint) to send to the recruiter before the interview, or assemble an organized portfolio in a binder that is both professional looking and easily viewed. Some items to include are:
   ◦ A current copy of your résumé on high-quality paper and an official transcript.
   ◦ Lesson plan samples from different classes and subject areas.
   ◦ Photos from bulletin boards or creative classroom activities.
   ◦ Reference letters from your faculty and supervisors.
   ◦ Honor Society and awards certificates.

3. Practice your interviewing skills - Career Services conducts mock interviews by appointment, and you could also ask someone you trust to ask questions and critique you. It is also helpful to write down answers to sample questions that you may have a difficult time answering and then practice giving a response.

4. Research the school prior to interviewing – Find valuable information on a school’s website. Have three to five good questions to ask the interviewer that relate to the school, based on preliminary research that you have conducted.

5. Acquire appropriate interview clothing - Appropriate professional business attire is required. A conservative suit, shirt and tie are always good choices. Conservative accessories, light or no cologne/perfume, and polished dress shoes will complete your professional image.

6. Practice appropriate behavior during the interview - Be on time, smile, be calm and confident, be prepared, give complete answers, speak clearly, show enthusiasm, make good eye contact, have a firm handshake, use good posture, and show interested body language.

7. Send a thank you letter or note - This letter/note expresses appreciation for the interviewer’s time and often strengthens your candidacy.
COMMON INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

Know yourself for an interview, both your strengths and weaknesses. Be prepared to emphasize your strong points, such as achievements and honors, skills and training, and reliability. Also, be prepared to account for your weaknesses, such as: low GPA, lack of work experience or no experience in the specific field, a bad reference or record of some kind, or a time gap on your résumé. Use examples from class projects, activities, volunteer service, sports, internships, and part-time jobs. The superintendent/principal may ask general questions to expand on your résumé or to get to know you, as well as behavioral interview questions to see how you have handled situations in the past.

TEACHER INTERVIEW GUIDELINES

It is advisable to formulate answers to anticipated questions for successful interview preparation. While there are many questions that can be asked in an interview, the following will help to give ideas.

A. Personal Opinions and Background
   - Tell me about yourself.
   - Why do you want to teach?
   - What gives you the most satisfaction as a teacher?
   - Why do you want to teach in this district or community?
   - What is/are the most important characteristic(s) of the successful teacher?
   - What do you expect of your students?
   - What is the most important contribution you can make to your students?
   - Do you accept the responsibility of being a good example?
   - What can you contribute to the profession?
   - Tell me about your personal background.
   - What are your hobbies and interests?
   - What are your professional plans or goals?
   - What is your philosophy of education?
   - Why do you think you will be a successful teacher?
   - What are your strongest traits? Your weakest traits?
   - Why should we employ you?
   - What is your attitude toward extra-duty activities?
   - Are you willing to teach at any school in the district?
   - What do you believe to be the greatest problem facing American public education?
   - What is your impression of youth in today’s world?
   - What information do you have about the district?
   - What would your students’ parents say about you?
   - What are two accomplishments you are proud of at this time?
B. Education and Experience
   - What subjects are you qualified and/or licensed to teach?
   - Why did you choose your particular area of preparation?
   - Discuss the ways in which your University has prepared you for teaching.
   - Name and evaluate two professional books that you have read in the last few months.
   - What kinds of experiences have you had which will be of help when you begin teaching?
   - Do you have experience with disadvantaged or minority group students?
   - Tell me about your student teaching or previous teaching experience.
   - How do you evaluate yourself as a teacher?
   - What do you have to offer that no other candidate has?
   - Why are you leaving your present position?
   - Why should we hire you?
   - What are your teaching strengths?
   - In what areas do you need to grow?

C. Ability to Get Along with Others
   - What quality in other people is most important to you?
   - Would you enjoy team teaching?
   - Describe your perception of your relationship with the building administration.
   - What are your attitudes toward supervision?
   - What techniques do you use in developing rapport with students?
   - How would you describe your relationship with your current supervisor?
   - What evidence can you provide that you can establish a good working relationship with students in the age group you will be teaching?

D. The Teaching-Learning Process
   - How do you handle curricular content in classes with many levels of ability?
   - Are you prepared to individualize instruction? How would you do that?
   - What do you consider to be the ideal learning environment?
   - Describe the role of the teacher in the learning process.
   - What can you do to improve learning opportunities in your particular area?
   - What teaching techniques are effective for you?
   - What are the major problems that you face in the classroom?
   - How would you organize and what would you include in a unit lesson plan?
   - How do you expect to motivate students?
   - How will you start your class the first day?
   - What would I see if I came into your classroom while you were teaching reading?
   - You have a student who cannot read. How would you go about helping this child?
   - Do parents have a place in your instructional program?
   - How do you inform parents of their child’s progress in grades and daily learning?
   - How do you incorporate your teaching philosophy into your daily instruction?
   - Describe an effective teacher.
   - If I walked into your classroom, what would the physical space look like?
E. Classroom Control
  o What is your philosophy of discipline?
  o How would you handle discipline problems?
  o Can you maintain good classroom discipline?
  o Do you anticipate any difficulty in classroom control?
  o How successful have you been in your previous experience in maintaining good discipline?
  o What procedures work best for you in maintaining discipline?
  o What type of classroom atmosphere would you establish to prevent discipline problems?
  o Why do students misbehave?
  o Who is responsible for discipline? In the classroom? In the entire school?
  o What people will you look to for help if there is a problem?
  o Please describe some of your classroom rules.

ADMINISTRATOR INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

Management & Leadership:
  o What do you believe is your greatest strength as an administrator?
  o How would you address a teacher receiving poor evaluations?
  o How do you plan to motivate your staff?
  o Define your leadership style.
  o How will you administer hiring and firing within your school/district?
  o What is your approach to student disciplinary issues? How will you handle them?
  o What is your experience in property management, and how will you manage school grounds and building maintenance?

Programming & Community Building:
  o How do you plan to implement new programs at your school?
  o In what ways will you integrate and promote character education in school programs?
  o How do you plan to include parents in student education and school activities?
  o What do you believe creates a positive rapport among students, administrators, and teachers? How will you achieve this?
  o How will you integrate special education students into the school community?

Academics:
  o What will you implement in order to meet and exceed standards set forth by NCLB?
  o How will you motivate teachers and students to perform well under these regulations?
  o How does your philosophy of education compare to the school’s mission and structure?
  o What methods do you believe strengthen the academic improvement of IEP and special education students?
  o How will you implement RtI and common core standards?

Make sure you have prepared questions to ask your interviewer(s)!
BEHAVIOR-BASED QUESTIONS

These questions are a common way for interviewers to learn more about how you act and react in different situations, more specifically to determine how you generally communicate, solve problems, and apply knowledge. These are important questions to answer well. Here are a few helpful hints and strategies for answering these questions:

Helpful Tips:
- These questions usually begin with “Tell me about a time when…”
- When answering these questions, you want to keep in mind what the purpose of the question is…communication style, ability to problem-solve, how you apply knowledge, if you learn from mistakes, etc. Answer the question in a way that sells these qualities.
- Remember STAR (Situation, Task, Action, Result) – Use the acronym to organize your answer and to cover all key characteristics the interviewer is listening for, as it applies to your performance in the job for which you are interviewing.
- Before an interview, brainstorm five to six STAR stories that demonstrate strong communication skills, initiative, effective problem solving, knowledge, learning, and success. This will cover many of the behavior-based questions that you might be asked.

Sample Behavior-Based Questions in Education:

Tell me about a time when...
- An angry parent contacted you.
- A student was struggling.
- A disruptive student would not focus in class.
- A staff member was not following school guidelines.
- You witnessed a fight on campus.
- You made a mistake on the job.
- You had a student always forget their homework and lose assignments.
- You had to communicate with a colleague who had a difficult personality.
- Your class average on a test was failing.
- Your leadership solved a problem and resulted in success.
- You contributed to the development of youth outside of the classroom.
- You discovered that a child had an unhealthy home life that was affecting him/her academically and socially.
- Addressed the public through the media about a controversial topic concerning your school/students.
- Had to remediate a teacher. (Administration position question)
- Formally acknowledged the success of others.
Curriculum
- Give an example of a national, state, or common core standard in your field. How did you teach a lesson incorporating that standard?
- How have you supplemented the textbook in your classroom?

Planning/Methods
- Describe the steps of teaching a class for a one-hour class period.
- Which methods do you most frequently employ in teaching?
- Describe any project or group work that has been successful with students.
- How have you prepared students for standardized tests?

Student Motivation
- What kinds of stressors do the students of today face, and how have you helped them cope with their concerns?
- How have you met the needs of gifted, talented, or advanced students in your classes?
- How have you helped at-risk students achieve academic success in your classes?

Assessment and Management
- Explain your grading scale to me as though you were explaining it to your class.
- Explain your classroom management plan to me as though you were explaining it to your students.
- Describe a time when your authority was challenged or a class rule was broken, and how you reacted.

Communication and Professionalism
- How have you communicated long-range plans to students and parents?
- How have you stayed current in your subject matter and the field of teaching?

This page was adapted for use from the Kappa Delta Pi Record.
ILLEGAL INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

Federal law protects job applicants from questions that might be used to discriminate against them. Interview questions should be directly related to the duties of the job for which the applicant is applying. Illegal questions could include any about race, age, religion, marital status, family planning, sexual orientation, etc.

If asked these questions, try to direct the conversation toward your skills and abilities. The following questions will give you some ideas for tactful ways to approach sticky questions:

1. Do you have plans for marriage and a family? (Gender Discrimination)
   • “I am definitely committed to this school and am able to handle all of the job’s responsibilities.”

2. How old are you? (Age Discrimination)
   • If you are a recent graduate: “Because of my age, I feel that I have fresh and exciting ideas to bring to the district!”
   • If you have been in the workforce for a while: “I feel that my age is an advantage, in terms of the broad experiences I have gained and can bring to this position.”

3. What is your ethnic background? (Racial Discrimination)
   • “I am very proud of my roots, but regardless of my ethnic background, I truly believe that I have the abilities and skills to qualify me for this position.”

   • “I make it a practice not to involve my religious beliefs in my work.”

If you have further concern or questions, contact Career Services.
CAREER FAIR TIPS
We co-host a Teacher Fair each March. Check our online calendar for dates.

There are a few main reasons schools attend career fairs. They want to increase awareness of their district by distributing their literature, to make contacts with candidates who may be a good fit for their school, to obtain résumés for potential openings in the near future, and to fill current position openings within their district. Candidates need to do all they can to make a positive first impression.

Some recruiters now, however, are not accepting résumés at career fairs and, instead, are directing students to apply online. If this is the case, you should take advantage of the opportunity to get your questions answered. You can get valuable information about the application process, employment needs, the district’s culture, and more.

Instead of distributing résumés, you may also consider creating and handing out business cards—complete with name; school; contact information; major; and highlights of academics, activities, or experiences. Handing out business cards can make a good impression on a school, and it allows the recruiter to make notes about you on the back of the card.

Attending a career fair is definitely an opportunity to network and to make a memorable first impression. Below are some before, during, and after tips:

BEFORE CAREER FAIR

• Understand your goals by asking yourself why you are going and what you hope to achieve, and then begin to prepare so that these goals can be met. Do you want to gain more information about certain districts or find a full-time position?

• Obtain a list of districts attending the career fair from the Career Services webpage. After deciding which districts you may want to speak with, go to their webpage to learn more about them. You do not need to know everything about a district at this point, but some knowledge of their schools will help you stand out in a positive way.

• Prepare or update your résumé, and then have it critiqued by Career Services; you might want to customize your résumé to certain schools.

• Prepare a thirty-second “commercial” about yourself. Introduce yourself, demonstrate knowledge about the school district, express your sincere interest in the district, and let the recruiter know what you can offer them (e.g. field experience, activities, leadership roles, internships, relevant work experience). Make sure to also ask them some questions about their district. Be aware that you might have to adjust what you say based on how busy the fair is at that time. BE FLEXIBLE!

• Obtain a nice pad folio, paper, and pen that you can take with you to the fair.
DURING CAREER FAIR

• Wear professional clothes! For women this includes a skirt suit that is not too short or a pants suit. The blouse should be a neutral color and one that is not low cut. Men should wear a suit with a white or neutral color dress shirt and conservative tie. Dark colors are best for suits. Make sure your shoes are shiny and not scuffed. Don’t wear too much jewelry or perfume, and make sure nails are neatly manicured. Please see the “Interview Clothing” section of this guide for more information on this area.

• Take several copies of your résumé on quality paper with you, along with a nice pad folio, paper, and pen. Consider handing out business cards if they don’t take résumés. Try to leave backpacks and other unnecessary items somewhere, and hang your coat if space allows.

• Nonverbal communication can speak a thousand words. When visiting tables, look professional, have a firm handshake for each recruiter, use good eye contact, stand up straight, and avoid distracting movements such as wringing your hands, rocking back and forth, or playing with your hair. Make sure to also smile! Your tone of voice should be enthusiastic, but pleasant and conversational.

• Present your “commercial” to the recruiter, highlighting your skills and experience. Show why you would be the best candidate, let him/her know you are knowledgeable of the school district through what you say and questions you ask, and answer his/her questions with a good response. Obtain his/her business card and materials, ask about the time frame for hiring and how you can follow up about openings. Ask if he/she is the contact person for the positions.

• Take short breaks to write down important information about the districts/organizations.

AFTER CAREER FAIR

• Thoroughly read the information you have collected and review notes you made.

• Follow up with districts/organizations in which you are interested through e-mails, phone calls, or letters. Make sure to submit any necessary applications in a timely manner.

SAMPLE QUESTIONS TO ASK EMPLOYERS
1. What advice would you offer to someone who wants to work for your district?
2. What qualifications are you seeking in new employees?
3. How is technology utilized in your district?
4. How can I receive further consideration for the positions you have described?
5. When do you expect to fill the available positions?
6. Can I provide you with any additional information?
INTERVIEW ATTIRE

Research shows that it only takes six seconds or less for someone to make a decision about what type of person you are, and if you could be a good fit for their school district. This decision can be made before you even speak! It is for this reason that your attire needs to be considered a crucial part of the interviewing process. Below are guidelines for appropriate attire, accessories, and grooming habits:

Suits - A suit is very appropriate for interviews. Possible colors include black, pinstripe, navy blue, or dark gray, and should be conservative instead of trendy. Make sure that the suit fits properly; for example, the sleeves should come to the top of your wrist, the material should fit properly in the shoulders and around the neck, and the pants should just touch the top of your dress shoes. If wearing a skirt suit, the skirt should be at or slightly above the knee. Most department or suit stores will give guidance in this area.

Ties - Conservative is the key word. Do not wear anything with bright colors or wild patterns on it. A tie with a small print or conservative stripes that matches the suit is ideal. The bottom of your tie should end at the middle of your belt buckle. You could try and match your color to the potential employer’s colors.

Shirts - A long-sleeved neutral colored shirt is a good choice, one that fits properly in the shoulders and neck. Wearing another layer under your shirt is highly recommended in many cases, such as a white t-shirt or cami.

Shoes, Socks, and Belts - Shoes should be a complimentary color to your suit, in a conservative color. Shoes should be freshly shined and not scuffed! Dress socks and belt should be dark in color and should match the suit; panty hose should match your skin color. Keep any heeled shoes at a reasonable length.

Jewelry - Body rings such as tongue rings or eyebrow rings should not be worn. Jewelry is fine to wear, as long as it does not distract from your interview.

Grooming - Hair, facial hair, and nails should be clean and neatly trimmed. Be aware that some employers do not allow any type of facial hair. Keep your makeup natural.

Miscellaneous - Clothes should be clean and neatly pressed. Avoid wearing cologne or aftershave. Try to keep tattoos covered at all times. Do not chew gum. Do not have the odor of cigarette smoke on your clothes and/or body. Bring a portfolio or briefcase, and if bringing a purse make sure it is small.
THANK YOU LETTERS

The thank you letter is used to establish goodwill, express appreciation, and strengthen your candidacy. When used to follow up on employment interviews, thank you letters should be addressed to the same person that sent you an application, as well as to your interviewers. These letters can usually be mailed or e-mailed, as long as professional etiquette is followed through email. These letters follow the same format as the cover letter, and should include the following information:

Return Address
City, State and Zip Code
Current Date [3 or 4 returns]

Superintendent/Principal's Name
Title
Name of School or District
Street Address, P.O. Box or Building
City, State and Zip Code [2 returns]

Dear (Mr., Ms., Dr.) last name: [2 returns]

Paragraph 1: Express your sincere appreciation for the opportunity to interview, and reiterate your interest in the position. Also, re-emphasize your strongest qualifications. [2 returns]

Paragraph 2: Provide supplemental information not previously given through your résumé or interview that may help you attain the position. Also, draw attention to the good match between your qualifications and the job requirements. Express your thanks again for the interview. [2 returns]

Sincerely, [3 or 4 returns between closing and typed name]

(Your signature)

Your typed name

(After you have accepted a position, make sure to also send a letter of appreciation, following this same general format, to everyone who assisted you in your job search, granted you informational interviews, or served as a reference.)
JOB ACCEPTANCE LETTERS

A job acceptance letter is used to formally show that you have accepted a position. Many companies require such a letter for your file. These letters follow the same format as the cover letter. Below is an example job acceptance letter:

6789 Main Street
Lebanon, IL 62254
December 1, 2015

Mr. Terry Grapp
Principal
Quality School
792 Star Street
St. Louis, MO 67890

Dear Mr. Grapp:

This letter will serve as my formal acceptance of your offer to join the Quality School as a 2nd-grade teacher. I appreciate this position offer and am excited to begin service with your school.

A two-week notice has been given to my current employer, so therefore I will begin work with Quality School on August 15, 2015, as we agreed. Please let me know if there is anything you need me to complete or participate in before my start date.

Mr. Grapp, you and the rest of the staff have been very helpful and professional during this process. I look forward to joining the team and accepting the challenges that this position will bring. Thank you for all of the assistance you have given me.

Sincerely,

Ava M. Richards

ASSISTANCE FROM CAREER SERVICES

Along with offering you a wealth of information through this guide, Career Services has other ways to assist you in your job search and in interviewing. These services include:

• Résumé and Cover Letter Help: We can assist you in writing your résumé and cover letter by giving you suggestions and proofreading.

• Mock Interviews: In our office, we offer mock interviews to help prepare you for your real interviews. We will go over interview tips and etiquette. In addition, we will ask you questions that you may be asked in an interview, as well as give you a critique of your answers to help you perfect your interview strategy.

• Drop-in Sessions: We will occasionally set up a table in the Piper Lobby to offer students and alumni our services. Topics include résumés, cover letters, interviewing, career fairs, and graduate school, among others.

• Classroom Presentations: Your faculty members can contact us to do a presentation for your class. Some of these presentations include “Seal the Deal! Effective Interviewing Strategies,” “Network Your Way To a Job,” “Crash Course in Job Hunting,” and “Catapult Your Candidacy.”

• Career Fairs: Career Services holds a Career and Internship Fair every February in the Hett. In addition, we co-sponsor career fairs throughout the year, including an Education Career Fair.

• Mentoring Program: On College Central Network (CCN), you can register for our mentoring program and connect with a McKendree alumnus in your field. You may set up an informational (or networking) interview with him/her to discuss the job search, interview tips, job shadowing, further career development, and more.
