

The Bearcat

¹Crossword

All things 'E'

Across

5. Students who are unsure of their major choose this: _____ studies.
6. The last name of McKendree's current provost. She also taught psychology for several years at the university.
7. The Hett's Arts ____ Series offers daytime performances for young students in order to expose them to the transformational power of the arts.
8. President Voigt and President Baker both share this first name.
9. Originally used as McKendree's gymnasium, this building on the east corner of campus is home to the mail room and is often used as a rehearsal space.
11. Since 2013 McKendree takes a whole day at the end of April to acknowledge and celebrate students' academic prowess: Academic _____ Day.
12. This is what Bogey decided to dress up as in this year's holiday video!
13. This is what visitors to the campus see first when they enter in from the south: the _____ monument.

Down

1. Students in the fitness center can do this more easily thanks to the recent updates made this fall.
2. The fifth pillar in McKendree's newest strategic plan U.N.I.T.E.D.
3. A low brass instrument that some members of McKendree's band play; the instrument of choice for this year's Lincoln Laureate winner Brad Eston.
4. Students pursuing this major learn about business and financial resources: _____ and Finance.
5. Students have the opportunity to join and participate in several organizations and _____ activities at McKendree.
7. Students and faculty and staff come to Ames Dining Hall and the 1828 Café to do this every day.
9. If you're studying Alfred Lord Tennyson, diagramming sentences, or the nature of language, then you might be majoring in this.