#147 Current Issues in College Athletics

Students will give presentations about current issues in college athletics.

A) The Underbelly of College Athletics

Recently, the NCAA and FBI have uncovered a large underground network of money and benefits given to the top prep basketball players in the nation. This presentation outlines the offenses, who committed them, and how the landscape of amateurism is affected.

Presenter: Jacob Stevenson

B) Gender Inequality in College Athletics

This session centers on gender inequality in college athletics through the use of interviews with women who were able to participate in sport because of Title IX.

Presenter: Alexis Ryan

C) MSU vs. Penn State Sexual Abuse Scandals

This presentation compares the Larry Nassar sexual abuse scandal at Michigan State University with the Jerry Sandusky case at Penn State. Does the gender of victims matter in media coverage?

Presenters: Madison Cowman, Dale Hassall, Peyton Renken

D) Mental Health in College Athletics

All college students face tremendous pressures on a daily basis, but collegiate athletes' pressures are compounded by a 20-hour-a-week unpaid "job." How are schools at the Division I level and the NCAA supporting their mental health?

Presenters: Shayli Florine, Megan Jensen, Megan Radae

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Elisabeth Erickson
