# Art from Our Hearts

This presentation will be about the presenters' experience and their growth as artists in their senior studio courses. They will talk about their own art processes and their creative process, as well as the meaning of their art.

Presenters: Darla Allen, Glenn Patton

Faculty Sponsors: Kevin Kao, Amy MacLennan

Location: PAC 117

# Nourishing of the Body and Soul

This session will present current information addressing a variety of topics. Topics include the pros and cons of the Keto diet, intuitive eating, probiotics and how the human body makes its own, and the benefits of solo travel. Samples of probiotic food sources will be available to try.

Presenters: Peyton Ali, Emma Dering, Zamantha Mulder, Courtney Squires

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Karan Onstott

Location: PAC 214

# Honors Thesis Presentation

Embodied Leadership and Spatial Positioning Within a Visual Field

This study investigates perceptions of power associated with seating arrangements around a table. The method for determining power will be to have study participants divide a total of 100 percent of power among people seated at the tables. Results have been predicted to show a pattern with people by themselves being scored significantly higher than other positions.

Presenter: Marcus Trout

Thesis Mentor: Dr. Guy Boysen

Location: PAC 215

# Honors Thesis Presentation

Makeup and Mugshots: A Study of Female Criminal Sentencing

Women continually are given lesser sentences than men for the same type of crime. This research explores what is causing this disparity and provide possible solutions.

Presenter: Taylor Ganz

Thesis Mentor: Dr. Ann Collins

Location: PAC 216

# Honors Thesis Presentation

The Tests Become More Important than the Education: The Inadequacies of No Child Left Behind

This session assesses the logistics and consequences of the No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB). This study argues that NCLB dramatically increased the amount of privatization in the public-school system. The effects of it are still present in public education today.

Presenter: Rachel Stanley

Thesis Mentor: Dr. Lauren Thompson

Location: PAC 217

# Norms of Social Media: Please Like Me

In this research project, students analyzed the norms of both established and emerging social media and evaluated how they affect people's daily lives. Also, this presentation will discuss why many feel the need to participate in the norms of social media.

Presenters: Angela Anzalone, Kathryn Krouse, Brooke McMillan, Trae Modlin

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Tami Eggleston

Location: PAC 218

# Seniors to Seniors: A Collection of Narratives from Cedar Ridge

Seniors to Seniors is a documentative compilation that transports us into the narratives of generations from the past. Stories full of lessons, love, regrets, and accomplishments are told and recorded between senior students at McKendree University and senior residents at Cedar Ridge Health and Rehab Center.

Presenters: Joshua Cobbins, Rachael Hooven, Kaleea Washington, Lexi Wesling, Emiah Williams

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Richard Murphy

Location: PAC 220

Presenter: Justin Sweeney

Faculty Mentor: Terese Kasson

Location: PAC 222

# College Hill Cemetery Walking Tour

College Hill Cemetery is not only a place of internment for loved ones of the community it serves, but also a cultural institution. Our historical walking tour will honor, celebrate, and remember the lives and times of those who built and shaped the humble community of Lebanon, Illinois.

Presenter: Justin Smock

Faculty Sponsor: Debbie Houk

Location: Front of Holman Library

BREAK: 10:30 – 10:40 a.m.

SESSIONS: 10:40 – 11:10 a.m.

# The Taste of Sunrise: A Discussion About Accessible Theatre for Deaf and Hearing Audiences

This session will focus on adaptive theatre for both deaf and hearing audiences. A monologue from The Taste of Sunrise will be presented as both a spoken word and signed performance by the presenter. This presentation was developed as part of the course work for THE 390–Junior Project in Theatre.

Presenter: Virginia Parkinson

Faculty Sponsor: Michelle Magnussen

Location: PAC 114

# Senior Survey in Political Science Course Presentations – Part I

A) Regional Organization Engagement in Intrastate Conflicts

Regional organizations often intervene in civil wars. This study aims to discover what methods (peacekeeping, economic sanctions, mediation, etc.) work best to end civil wars by analyzing cases in Burundi, Kosovo, and Lebanon.

Presenter: Andrew Wagner

B) Death in the 8th and 14th

This paper analyzes the legality of the death penalty given Supreme Court interpretations of the 8th and 14th amendments, particularly since the 1970s.

Location: PAC 216

# Honors Thesis Presentation

Career Motivators: What Influences College Students’ Career Choice?

This presentation will cover research examining the motivators that may influence a college student’s career choice. For instance, it will look at personality, parental or guardian influence, and other job motivators such as benefits, income, and vacation. The presentation will showcase the results found across campus from a survey given and provide insight on what factors may predict career choice among students.

Presenter: Christie Draper

Thesis Mentor: Dr. Tami Eggleston

Location: PAC 217

# Ladies of the 80s: Examining the History of the “Me Too” Movement and What Comes Next

This session will examine the history of the “Me Too” movement and analyze a series of popular movies from the 80’s in accordance with today’s views. The research group looked at various movies with a critical eye, questioning the extent to which the content in a movie would be considered acceptable today. Specific scenes from multiple different movies will be shown, which will promote expository thinking towards the content in the future.

Presenters: Colleen Corkery, Taylor Gossage, Alejandro Lopez, Faith Rose, Beylee Stone

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Tami Eggleston

Location: PAC 218

Presenters: Aubree Dolkey, Emma Eldridge, Ashley Hathaway, Jawaun Jackson

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Duane Olson

Location: PAC 117

# Solo Travel for Health and Studying Abroad

This session will focus on the positive effects of solo travel on one's physical and mental health and how

McKendree University students can go about solo traveling or studying abroad.

Presenter: Zamantha Mulder

Faculty/Staff Sponsors: Dr. Karan Onstott, Sandee Powers

Location: PAC 214

# Honors Thesis Presentation

Ensuring History Is Not Repeated: Effective Methods of Teaching History

For this honors thesis project, research was done to evaluate the advantages and demerits of the methods used to teach history in public high schools of the United States. Key aspects of the research include both academic journals and surveys of in-service teachers from area schools, as well as history and history education majors from McKendree University. Findings are summarized, along with conclusions about the best methods and activities for teaching history effectively.

Presenter: Morgan Hall

Thesis Mentor: Dr. Shelly Lemons

Location: PAC 215

# Mission Trip to Poland

This session will enlighten listeners about mission work in Poland, while also providing some cultural significance of the Polish culture. The presenter will speak about her time overseas and talk about the spiritual significance of the trip. She worked hands on with the local community and was able to become a tourist and understand the tragedies Poland faced during World War II.

Presenter: Emily Barylske

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Ann Collins

Location: PAC 216

# Honors Thesis Presentation

Presenter: Brittany Schmidtke

Thesis Mentor: Dr. Tami Eggleston

Location: PAC 217

# Why Do We Communicate That Way?: An Exploration of Self-Disclosure, Accommodation, Uncertainty, and Jealousy in Interpersonal Relationships

This session will highlight two original qualitative communication research studies from students enrolled in SPC 252–Interpersonal Communication. Isabela Scaturro and Kathleen Craven examine the interpersonal relationships between students and their professors regarding self-disclosure and accommodation. Students explore how individuals manage uncertainty in romantic relationships during jealousy-induced situations.

Presenters: Kathleen Craven, Rachael Hooven, Faith Rose, Paris Suzuki, Isabela Scaturro

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Sara Trask

Location: PAC 218

# Gender, Race, Discipline, and Anxiety: Two Qualitative Studies

This session includes a presentation on perceptions of academic discipline of African-American females and a presentation on how African-American parents talk about mental health with their children.

Presenters: Alexandria Glaude, Emiah Williams

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Richard Murphy

Location: PAC 220

# Current Issues in College Athletics

Students will give presentations about current issues in college athletics.

A) The Underbelly of College Athletics

Recently, the NCAA and FBI have uncovered a large underground network of money and benefits given to the top prep basketball players in the nation. This presentation outlines the offenses, who committed them, and how the landscape of amateurism will be affected.

Presenter: Jacob Stevenson

B) Gender Inequality in College Athletics

This session centers on gender inequality in college athletics through the use of interviews with women who were able to participate in sport because of Title IX.

Presenter: Alexis Ryan

C) MSU vs. Penn State Sexual Abuse Scandals

This presentation compares the Larry Nassar sexual abuse scandal at Michigan State University with the Jerry Sandusky case at Penn State. Does the gender of victims matter in media coverage?

Presenters: Madison Cowman, Dale Hassall, Peyton Renken

D) Mental Health in College Athletics

All college students face tremendous pressures on a daily basis, but collegiate athletes' pressures are compounded by a 20-hour-a-week unpaid "job." How are schools at the Division I level and the NCAA supporting their mental health?

Presenters: Megan Jensen, Shayli Florine, Megan Radae

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Elisabeth Erickson

Location: PAC 222

Presenters: Jaxon Karnoski, Leah Kloss, Evan Lockwood, Dustin Logan, Tyler Manion, Dylan Samuel, Danielle Sweeney

Staff Sponsor: Jordan Fark

Location: PAC 117

# Measuring the Economic Hardships of Single Mothers in College

The intersectionality of marital status, gender, parenthood, and socio-economic status was used to analyze the economic hardship of single mothers in college. The information and data collected were used to test the theory that single mothers have a harder time paying their bills and keeping a place to live while in college. This will raise awareness on campus about finding ways to help single mothers further their education.

Presenter: Karyn Sahs

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Melissa Barfield

Location: PAC 214

# Honors Thesis Presentation

Overpopulation: Facts, Figures, and What McKendree Thinks

This presentation will cover the research and projections about human overpopulation and its negative effects, along with the results of a survey of McKendree students regarding their views on the subject.

Presenter: Mitchell Kuntz

Thesis Mentor: Dr. Dawn Hankins

Location: PAC 215

# The Analysis of Hypermasculinity and Racism in Sport

This presentation will provide insight and overview of sport and the concepts that have created stigma and hardship for gay and black athletes through the media coverage of Michael Sam.

Presenter: Paisley Stokes

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Elisabeth Erickson

Location: PAC 216

# Honors Thesis Presentation

The Effect of Visitor Density on Captive Toco Toucan Behavior

While the mission of a zoo is partially to provide public educational opportunities for the benefit of species preservation, there is debate as to whether human disturbance creates unnecessary stress for animals. Previous work has demonstrated that a variety of captive species exhibit behavioral changes in the presence of visitors. This study examines how captive Toco Toucan behavior is affected by visitor density at the St. Louis Zoo.

Presenter: Haleigh Day

Thesis Mentor: Dr. Michele Schutzenhofer

Location: PAC 217

# Learning Through Service with the Lyn Huxford Center for Community Service

In this presentation, students will share thoughts about their service experiences through the Lyn Huxford Center for Community Service. Through the Community Scholars and Fellows Program, students have been leaders in service and will present on the projects they have coordinated and undertaken as scholarship recipients.

Presenters: Mackenzie Auten, Emily Davis, Rachael Fulton, Hannah Sugarman

Staff Sponsor: Joshua Hughlett

Location: PAC 218

# On Leadership and Mentors: Two Qualitative Studies

This session includes a case study analysis of a young athlete's experience with coaching changes and a presentation on the perceptions of internship supervisors.

Presenters: Grant Riggs, Austin Stout

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Richard Murphy

Location: PAC 220

# Going for the Mental Gold: Comparing College Sports Teams on Mental Skills

In recent years, sport psychology has become more important in both team and individual sports. Jack Lesyk, a leading sport psychologist, suggests that there are nine essential mental skills for athletes (e.g., motivation, positive self-talk, teamwork). The research team handed out the Nine Mental Skills Surveys to twelve teams (e.g., tennis, swimming, soccer, lacrosse, basketball, band, hockey). Results will be shared comparing teams on the mental skills. Coaches and athletes alike should benefit directly from the findings.

Presenters: Bryce Bambic, Elia Burbidge, James Ding, Oriana Johnson, Sara Kalkenova

Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Tami Eggleston

Location: PAC 222
