AFFIRMING that the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) is a terrorist organization and a growing global threat that calls for the formation of an Islamic Caliphate (the concept of a single theocratic government ruling vast expanses of the Middle East), and

AWARE that as ISIS is a terrorist organization, not a formal government (though they have claimed the title of the 'Islamic State'), normal rules of warfare will not be effective and do not apply, and

GREATLY DISTRAUGHT by the fact that since June of 2014, ISIS has killed more than 1,969 people, while over 1,238 were civilians (which brings the cumulative number of civilian casualties up to over 17,00 as of 2014) and

NOTING that reports have shown that ISIS controls over 13,00 miles of land stretching between Syria and Iraq in the name of the 'Islamic State', and

APPALLED that ISIS is making nearly $300,000,000 a day from the black market sales of stolen oil, harvested human organs, human trafficking, and the sale of women and children as slaves, and

ALARMED that ISIS uses the internet as a weapon of terror, uploading effective propaganda pieces that, according to analysts, have worked to make fighting 'easier', as well as numerous videos of brutal beheading of victims to create panic, and

FULLY BELIEVING that the longer ISIS is allowed to continue their quest of destruction and violence, the more power and followers they will gain and the harder they will be to stop;

1.) CALLS UPON all member nations, both large and small, to help in the effort against ISIS;

2.) URGES nations to contribute whatever they can, such as troops, weapons, humanitarian aid, monetary aid, etc. to the fight against this global threat;

3.) STRESSES that nations not currently in the fight join before it becomes a fight too big to handle;

4.) CONFIDANT that if the world unites against this terrorist group it will send the message to ISIS and any other terrorist group that terrorism will not be tolerated by the civilized world.

3 and Syrian territories under spurious Islamic ideology, and
4

5 NOTING WITH GRAVE CONCERN the blatant atrocities committed by the Islamic State which include the 6 murder of innocent civilians, both foreign and native, by inhumane means such as beheading and crucifixion, and
7

8 REAFFIRMING both standing United Nations resolutions on the topic;
9

- 10 a) Resolution 2170 which condemns in the strongest terms what it calls "gross, systematic and 11 widespread abuse" of human rights by the Islamic State, and 12
13 b) Resolution 2199 which focuses extensively on terrorist financial support networks,
14 particularly the Islamic State's raising of funds through oil smuggling, looting of antiquities,
15 kidnapping for ransom, and other illicit activities, and 16

17 TAKING INTO ACCOUNT the perverted ideology under which the Islamic State currently operates; ideology
18 which falsely justifies the establishment of an Islamic Caliphate and the subsequent implementation of Sharia law,
19 drawing would-be jihadists from all over the globe into the middle-eastern conflict, and

1 Aware cocaine is the most used drug in the world at present with opium close behind, and

2
3 Alarmed at the fact that Afghanistan's people alone produce three hundred – eighty tons of 4 opium per year for the drug market, and

5
6 Recognizing that the primary trade routes run through the Balkan states to Russia and Eastern
7 Europe, and

8
9 Taking Into Account drug trafficking alone makes those involved approximately thirteen
10 thousand dollars every year, and

11
12 1) Calls Upon creating a global task force to search out new drugs and warn member
13 nations so that they may act to prevent a breakout of the drug(s) in their country;

14
15 2) Recommends striving to bring the revenue which these criminals are creating back to 16 the countries the said criminal originates from;

18 3) Directs countries along these routes crack down on who and what goes in and out of 19 their country so that the product cannot make it to the consumer.

3 APPALED at the escalating level of violence and the death of almost 200,000 people, including 4 tens of thousands of children, as a result of the Syrian conflict and,

5
6 EXPRESSING CONCERN that the number of people in need of humanitarian aid in Syria has 7 grown to over 10 million including 6.5 million displaced individuals and,

8
9 DEPLORING that very little action has been taken by various Syrian parties in order to allow the 10 entry and dispersal of humanitarian aid through the country and,

11
12 COMMENDING the efforts that have been made by various nations in the region, notably
13 Lebanon, Jordan, Turkey, and Egypt, to accommodate and support the almost 3 million refugees
14 who have fled Syria as a result of ongoing violence and,

15
16 REITERATING the primary responsibility of the Syrian authorities to protect the population in 17 Syria;

19 1) IMPLORES that all parties in the Syrian conflict, particularly the Syrian authorities, 20 comply with their obligations under international humanitarian law and international
21 human rights law;

23 2) STRONGLY ENCOURAGES that all Syrian parties in the conflict enable the 24 immediate and unhindered delivery of humanitarian aid directly to refugees
25 throughout Syria by the United Nations humanitarian agencies and their regional 26 partners;

27
28 3) DECLARES that the only permanent solution to the current crisis in Syria is through 29 an inclusive and Syrian-led political process focused on implementing international 30 human rights legislation;

31
32 4) URGENTLY REQUESTS that all Syrian parties in the conflict take any and all 33 appropriate steps to ensure the safety and security of United Nations aid workers and 34 their associated personnel;

35
36 5) AFFIRMS that the Security Council will implement further measures in the event of 37 noncompliance to this resolution from any Syrian parties.
